Rembrandt Exhibit at the National Gallery Washington, DC

Beloved for his painting, Rembrandt van Rijn is equally famous for the extraordinary creativity and drawings. The National Gallery of Art has one of this country's greatest collections of these works. Combined with outstanding loans from American private galleries the "Strokes of Genius Rembrandt's Prints and Drawings" exhibit should be fabulous. We will drop you off in front of the museum, and you can spend the day as you like, touring this marvelous exhibit as well as the others at the National Gallery. Eat lunch on your own, and meander through the Gallery some more; or you can explore one of the other museums. When you're finished, we'll bring you home again. Now that's easy! ## P. Buckley Moss Museum

Waynesboro, VA

P. Buckley Moss is one of Virginia's most famous artists, most known for her etchings and paintings. We will be touring her museum on one of the rare occasions when her special barn is open and the artist herself will be there showing and signing her work! So join us for this special day when we might actually meet the artist, and enjoy a beautiful trip to the heart of the Shenandoah Valley on the same day. We will stop for lunch "on your own" and then stop by the Artisans Center of Virginia before heading home. Cancellation deadline is April 5.

Jamestown 400th Anniversary Celebration Jamestown, VA

Join us as we head to the Jamestown Settlement to help celebrate 'America's Anniversary Weekend'. With lots of special performances and activities, this should be an exciting mix of history and fun. Your special "anniversary ticket" includes admission to the Jamestown Settlement, Historic Jamestown and Anniversary Park- each site with it's own special activities. Major artifacts from museums, libraries and private collections from more than 10 countries will be on display including a 15th century copy of the Magna Carta. There will also be a special artisans' village where blacksmithing, pottery making glass blowing and other crafts that sustained the Jamestown settlement will be performed. There will also be pageantry and demonstrations including military drills, cannon firings and readings of period materials. You spend the day as you wish - the hardest decision will be deciding what to do first! Meals are on your own. Cancellation Deadline is March 28th.
